

News from Town Hall

Monday July 20, 2009

From the Canal Dredge Project Manager
A "Correction"

In the canal dredge update this past Friday I stated that it was our plan to move the dewatered spoils material to the Duck Woods Country Club. That part of this plan is still in negotiation and I was remiss in mentioning this property in the Broadcast. To the extent that either party may have been offended by my comment, I offer my sincere apology.