Summer Lifeguard Service Begins

Surf Rescue has started life guard services along our Atlantic Ocean beaches. Lifeguard stands will be staffed at Hillcrest Drive beach and at Chicahauk Trail beach. There will also be two roaming patrols on 4-wheel ATV's. Lifeguards are on duty daily from 10:00 AM to 6:00 PM.

- If you don't swim well, stay at shallow wading depths.
- Watch for sudden drop-offs and stay within sight of a lifeguard at a manned lifeguard stand.
- Red "No Swimming" flags are flown along the oceanfront in the summer months when conditions are determined to be too hazardous for swimming. No swimming is allowed while the red flags are being flown. Fines may be levied.
- Watch for rip currents. If caught in a rip current, don't panic or swim against the current. Swim parallel to shore until you break out of the current. Never underestimate the hazard of rip currents. (Click here for more information).
- Surfers must have a leash physically attached to their surfboard and the other end looped around the user's ankle or wrist.
